

Welcome to Set Free International

Contributed by Administrator

Set Free International, a for-profit business, found its birth in a vision. In the vision I heard the cries of hundreds of women, all different, all layered on each other—all women's voices. My heart was drawn in solidarity since I too have cried when overcoming felt impossible, or when it appeared that no one understood my plight. In such circumstances it is normal to question if anyone in the world cares.